* Foxcroft Homeowners Association Information *

There will no board meeting for December. The next regular meeting will be the annual meeting on January 25. As required by the Association covenants, we are required to have an annual association meeting, to be held the 4th Wednesday of January each year.

The 2012 annual meeting will be held on January 25, 2012 at 7:00 pm at the clubhouse.

Please put this on your calendar and plan on attending, more information to come.

Two board positions will be available in the near future. Ed Koonce, our current treasurer, will be stepping down after this year due to other commitments in 2012. Katie Davis, our current association manager, will be moving mid-2012 and will also be resigning from her position.

We want to thank both Katie and Ed for all their time and service they have provided to the board and neighborhood the past several years. They will both greatly be missed! Their contributions have helped continue the strong HOA board we have here in Foxcroft.

HELP WANTED

We need a new treasurer and association manager! Watch for more information soon about these openings. Please consider giving a little time for your association. Should you have any questions about either position, contact Ed, Katie, or any board member.

You should have already received a notice about the 2012 dues collection service through BB&T. Please contact any board member with any questions or concerns.

Thank You!

Finally, as president, I would like to thank each member of the board for all their time and service this year. We are very lucky to have an active volunteer board for our HOA. Please thank a board member if you see them around. I also want to thank everyone who has volunteered throughout the year, whether it was a social function, work day, closing the pool, and other events.

On behalf of the board, we hope each of you has a joyous holiday season and great 2012!
